

DET EAL Resources

The following materials to support teachers of EAL learners are available for free download from the DET FUSE <https://fuse.education.vic.gov.au/pages/Teacher.aspx>

Talking in Tune: A guide to working with interpreters in schools Video consisting of seven scenarios designed to highlight common pitfalls and effective strategies when working with interpreters. It suggests ways of avoiding these pitfalls to enable successful communication with parents or guardians. Learning Resource ID MNZP52

Beginning ESL: Support material for primary new arrivals supports mainstream primary classroom teachers by providing practical ideas and resources for newly arrived EAL learners. The material is organised into 16 units of work based around topics that are appropriate for newly arrived students. FUSE Learning Resource ID CKK2Q8

Language games for ESL students: These photocopiable materials can be used to make language games for EAL and languages students, across all year levels. The games consolidate and reinforce skills in speaking, listening, reading and writing, and give students a chance to use a range of language functions important for working and playing with others. Learning Resource ID D4MP5Z

Word study for new-arrivals These materials are designed to assist EAL students to develop early literacy skills in English through a focus on the vocabulary and grammatical features which early learners of English are most likely to use. Learning Resource ID ZFH7S

No English: Don't panic provides information and strategies for primary classroom teachers of newly arrived EAL students during their first few weeks in Australia. It provides early English language learning needs – including information about enrolment and placement – helping students settle into their new school. Updated 2014. Learning resource ID GX5XHW

No English: Questions and Answers

No English 2 – Questions and Answers is a follow-on book from No English – Don't panic. It provides answers to some of the questions primary classroom teachers may have about the English language development of newly arrived ESL learners, and about providing appropriate programs for them. It shows how a coordinated program can be developed by using available school resources, which will be appropriate for students and manageable for teachers. Updated 2014. Learning resource ID XH9ZCR

Beginning EAL—Secondary: Support material for teachers of secondary new arrivals provides support material for newly arrived secondary EAL learners. The material can be used with EAL students who have minimal English or no English and have arrived in Australia with literacy and schooling in their first language roughly equivalent to the stage of schooling they are entering in Australia.
